

FINO PhD Program in Philosophy
Epistemological curriculum
A.Y. 2020-2021

The course is mandatory for first-year PhD students of the Epistemological Curriculum, and is open to PhD students of all cycles and curricula

Title SEMINAR ON CLASSICS OF ANALYTIC PHILOSOPHY

Course Description. The course aims at giving the main ideas of the founders of Analytic Philosophy, mainly Gottlob Frege, Bertrand Russell, and Ludwig Wittgenstein. The topics treated are given in the detailed specification of the course, with a list of reading for each Author.

Course organization: Lectures, questions and answers, and students are required active participation to the discussion.

Teacher(s): Guido Bonino, Carlo Penco, Diego Marconi

Duration and Credits 24 Hours, 12 credits

Teaching period To be decided

Requirements Students are required to read the reading list before the course and send to each teacher three questions on which the discussion will be organized. Students should write a paper on one of the three topics discussed in the classroom.

Details To be announced shortly.